

Boxer, Pacific's mascot has been an absent figure throughout the majority of the 1984-85 school year. However, there were many students eager for his reappearance.

At the end of the 1983-84 school year, it was rumored that the Hawaiian club had gained control of the Boxer, after a rough brawl on the football field. Whoever actually had Boxer did not keep him for long. He was snatched away by Kathy O'Driscoll and friends and he spent the summer in hiding. At the beginning of the 1984-85 school year he made a trip back to the Forest Grove area, but before he could be flashed or thrown he disappeared again.

1985

On May 10, 1985 Boxer returned in the possession of seniors, Dave Dunham and Jim Nieuwstraton. A large welcoming committee consisting of varied members of the Pacific community, also KOIN-TV and KGW-TV were there to watch the action. The fight was short and when everything settled down the new temporary owners of the Boxer were the Gamma Sigma Fraternity.

The questions still remain. Where is Boxer? Where will he appear next?
